HOW HBO WORKS

Weekends are Premiere Nights on HBO. You see major motion pictures—unedited and without commercial interruption—plus entertainment specials like Standing Room Only and On Location produced exclusively for you. Foreign and Classic films Premiere on Wednesdays—and great Sports Events occur the year round. All this means you see three or more new shows every week! Only program highlights are shown above, so always check through the guide where the entire month's shows are described. Refer to the page number included with a listing if the program's description doesn't appear on a page where the program is scheduled. Programs run four to six times during the four weeks after they premiere—this way you see the shows you want at your convenience.

Premiere

CAR WASH This funky slice of L.A. life comes on as fast and frenetic as its Top 40 title song. An eccentric gallery of urban characters including cabdriver George Carlin, preacher Richard Pryor with his ladies, the Pointer Sisters, and stoned-out mad bomber Prof. Irwin Corey make their irreverent ways through a typical looney day at the Dee Luxe Car Wash. It's a film as bright and noisy as a pinball machine—with good acting throughout—and what The New York Times calls “a terrifically shrewd piece of moviemaking.” Adult theme. (PG-1:47) June 3,5,8,13,16,25

CONDUCT UNBECOMING

Lieutenant Michael York defends a fellow soldier accused of rape in a taut courtroom drama set in 19th century British India. Susannah York and Richard Attenborough both keep stiff upper lips as the intrepid young officer gets closer to a well-guarded secret. Adult theme. (PG-1:47) Encores June 15, 26

GUMBALL RALLY Who would race a souped-up set of wheels 3,000 miles just for a giant gumball machine? Nearly every conceivable dreamer who ever gunned an engine for fun! Gum-chomping exec Michael Sarrazin sets off on a coast-to-coast zoom-fest with 18 other speed demons in hot pursuit. Ticket-wielding cops, exploding vans, pretty sisters in a Porsche and arch rival Raul Julia all downshift to a dizzying finish in some of the most madcap car-action sequences ever filmed. Save vroom for this car stunt comedy! Adult humor, (PG-1:47) June 19,23,28

Premiere

Premiere

ROBERT KLEIN REVISITED

HBO welcomes back Robert Klein—with a brand new act, but the same freewheeling flair. The success of his first HBO appearance helped pioneer the phenomenon of pay-TV. The New York Times called it “innovative,” “permissive” and said “Mr. Klein is a hilariously reasonable observer.” Be prepared for surprises in this 90 minute special ON LOCATION performed at New York University when once again Robert Klein tackles the normal neuroses called life! June 17,21,25,27

Premiere

TOTIE RETURNS!

Once in a very special while the entertainment world comes together to honor one of its own. Such an occasion occurs as the curtain rises on the Sahara stage to welcome back Totie Fields... triumphant in her return to show business after last year's surgical loss of her leg. The emotional outburst and standing ovation that follows certifies this night as indeed a "special event." Totie's response to this: "Come on let's keep it down, I haven't done anything yet!"

The Special begins at the Las Vegas airport as Totie's friends (Milton Berle, Jerry Lewis, Lucille Ball, Lucie Arnaz, Marty Allen, Florence Henderson, Steve Lawrence and Eydie Gorme, Steve Allen and Jayne Meadows, Phyllis Diller, Carl Reiner, Rose Marie, and Jan Murray among others!) arrive and wind their way via motorcade to Totie's party at the Sahara Hotel. An intimate talk with Totie is followed by interviews with many of these celebrities.

STANDING ROOM
ONLY

Totie Returns with an emotional thank you to her friends. Rona Barrett reports, "Totie's new show, much of it dealing in side-splitting detail with the adjustments she's had to make, had everyone in the standing room only show-room roaring, when they weren't wiping away tears." It's a delightfully risqué and totally uncensored Las Vegas Act. Home Box Office invites you all to join Ms. Totie Fields for the biggest night of her professional life!

STRANGER IN THE HOUSE
(a.k.a. Black Christmas)
Could this classy scare-flick be the new Psycho? For the edge-of-the-seat school of filmgoer, it's a sure winner. There's a psychotic murderer hiding in the attic of a sorority house where four girls are staying alone over Christmas vacation. One by one, he picks them off in a bizarre series of murders. The skin-crawling climax is a deftly done turnabout that will leave you as limp as a wet piece of Bounty. Stars Keir Dullea, John Saxon, Margot Kidder and Olivia Hussey. The real thing, friends. Explicit language and strong violence. (R-1:39) June 24, 27, 29

Premiere

THE MAN WHO WOULD BE KING Adrift in India, Sean Connery and Michael Caine concoct a shrewd plan—set themselves up as kings of the fabled kingdom of Kafiristan. Getting there is half the fun—the glacier entrapped kingdom hasn't had a visitor since Alexander the Great! Some violence. (PG-2:09) Encores June 17, 26

TOTIE FIELDS

TOTIE RETURNS "Seventy-three pounds lighter and six operations later, she's still Totie the Riveter," says the Los Angeles Times. Totie, the "First Lady of Las Vegas," returns to show business with all new material and surrounded by a host of celebrities. A first-rate evening of adult entertainment June 26, 28, 30

The Man Who Would Be King

THE BLACK BIRD Shaggy George Segal is Sam Spade Jr. aiming to finish the work his dad began in The Maltese Falcon. Femme fatale Stephanie Audran offers a nice diversion when Segal's not tracking down the elusive black bird of happiness in this spoof of the mystery classic. Adult humor. (PG-1:38) Encores on June 4, 9, 24

The sailor who fell from grace with the sea

American sailor Kris Kristofferson falls for British widow Sarah Miles. But Miles' son and his sadistic pals decide Kristofferson must never desert the sea—even if it means violent action. Nudity. (R-1:45) Encores June 9,28

INSIDE OUT

Telly Savalas and ex-Nazi officer James Mason want to cash in on Hitler's lost gold. But the man with the key is locked up tight in a high security prison. Some violence. (PG-1:37) Encores June 27

Lorna Doone HBO Playhouse

Romance and intrigue combine in this zesty tale of the outlaw Doone clan. Taken from R.D. Blackmore's classic novel and set in England's West Country during the turbulent 1600s, it is a suspenseful, high adventure story for the whole family. June 3,9,10,12,16,18,27

WIMBLEDON

Despite all the six-figure challenge matches and other hyped-up events that have become so much a part of tennis recently, nothing quite rivals the drama and prestige of Wimbledon's annual showdown. Back to defend their singles titles will be Bjorn Borg (pictured at left), who last year beat Ilie Nastase in the final round, and Chris Evert, who outlasted Evonne Goolagong. Home Box Office will be bringing you the quarter- and semi-final rounds of the men's and women's singles matches on June 28,29,30 and July 1.

GEORGE CARLIN ON LOCATION Here's 90 minutes of fine, unfettered madness with George Carlin at the USC Campus in L.A. Carlin uses explicit language to present his iconoclastic and very funny views on life. June 18,29

GABLE and LOMBARD

Dizzy Carole Lombard meets big-eared Clark Gable and it's loathe at first sight. But things warm up in this story of their life and loves. Strong language, Adult theme. (R-2:11) Encores June 19,30

HBO SOUNDTRACK

HBO is the place to shake the network summer doldrums. This month there's a new celebrity-packed Special starring Totie Fields, an all-new Robert Klein show On Location, Wimbledon Tennis matches and great movies.

The Godfather, Part II and Silent Movie

We're very pleased to be showing both of these outstanding films in June. Be sure to check the playdates for these movies, since their Premiere showings are scheduled over a shorter period than usual. The Godfather, Part II premieres June 5. It spans 68 years—the rise and fall of the Corleone underworld dynasty—and won six Oscars, including Best Picture and Best Supporting Actor (Robert De Niro). Silent Movie, Mel Brooks' latest comedy, premieres June 12. He calls it a valentine to the hilarious artistry of the silent comedians from Chaplin to Harold Lloyd. The cast, led by Brooks, is loaded with Hollywood stars in cameo roles.

You're in on the ground floor

Because pay-TV is still young and you as a subscriber are part of a new entertainment industry, we thought you'd be pleased to know of the recent National Cable Award to Bette Midler for her HBO Special. Ms. Midler's acceptance remarks express the excitement we feel and hope you share as a member of a very special entertainment club.

"I came here tonight because I wanted to thank the industry personally—not only for the award, but for presenting my show on television without censorship, without apologies, without edit and without those tasteful little 'bleeps' . . . Pay-TV must go on to provide both the public and the performer with imaginative and courageous alternatives . . . I want to tell you how thrilling it is to be on the ground floor of a brave and new industry . . . and how delighted I am to be part of this exciting and contemporary force, that is pay-TV."
